

Key First Nation NNADAP Counsellor

Key First Nation is looking for an enthusiastic, self-motivated and flexible NNADAP Counsellor to provide addictions prevention and treatment services for the members of the Key First Nation. In this position you will be responsible for client intake; assessment; individual, family and group counselling; referral and follow-up for client; consultations; community collaboration; workshop facilitation, and presentations. Effective counselling, communication, consultation, and collaboration skills are required. This position requires basic computer competency and the ability to work independently. Willing to volunteer and participate in evening and weekend activities. Provide culturally appropriate programs to educate and promote addictions awareness and addiction-free lifestyles.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- You will need to be drug and alcohol free for 2 or more years
- You will need a certificate or a diploma in addictions counselling
- You will need a vehicle and valid driver's license
- Criminal Record Check.
- Be well organized and plan major health activities, which include the whole community
- Must have first aid/CPR Certification
- Must possess considerate patience, understanding and compassion for the community and its health issues and concerns
- Must be punctual dependable, and reliable and ensure that confidential matters remain confident
- Other related duties as assigned by the Health director

Wages will be based on experience

Application deadline: May 13, 2011

Please submit resume to: Key First Nation Health Center
Box 368
Norquay Sask
S0A 2V0
Fax: 594-2168

Attention: Gilda Dokuchie